CANNOT SEE KING ALBERT YET

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—At 2:15 p. m. Dr. Grayson issued the following statement: "The President's condition is unchanged."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—President Wilson's condition this morning showed no improvement, it was learned officially at the White House. He slept a little during the night, it was said, but in spite of this his condition remained a cause for anxiety to his physicians and his family. A consultation was held this morning with the head of the Navy Medical school and Dr. Ruffner, a Washington physician. A statement will be issued giving the result of their consultation. The President's physical condition remains good, it was learned. It was regarded as highly favorable by Dr. Grayson. His temperature is normal. Attending the President are a trained nurse and Mrs. Wilson, who remains with him constantly and personally ministers to him. Yesterday the President was told of the vote on the Fall amendment and ratification of the peace treaty by the French Chamber of Deputies.

The prayer today of the House chaplain, Rev. Harry H. Gouden, was an appeal for the restoration of the President's health. "The House and the nation is stirred with anxiety and sympathy for the President and his family," the Chaplain said.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—King Albert telegraphed to Washington for permission to visit President Wilson officially, it was announced at the Waldorf-Astoria today. The request was refused, it was said, on the grounds that the President must not be submitted to any excitement.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effectively checked the source of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict, the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless misery that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

SUCCESS OF DRIVE ASSURED

Chairman Kerr and eight members of the executive committee for Jewish War Relief motored Wednesday to Osceola, Houtzdale, Madera, Coalport, Ironva, Berwinstale, LaJosa and Mahaffey where they met the different local committees and outlined the plan of campaign for Jewish Relief which starts October 6th and ends October 13th. At every place they met a hearty reception, the local committees entering into the spirit and humanity of the proposed relief to the suffering Jewish people in war-torn Poland and Russia, promising their support and co-operation.

The evening previous Curwensville was visited and J. Kay Wrigley named as local chairman. Yesterday the party visited Boardman, Carnwath, Kellytown, McCartney and Ansonville on a similar mission.

This afternoon the committee will visit the down river country, swinging around the circle by way of Morrisdale.

Space today does not permit of a full explanation of the reasons for this campaign at this time. The Progress has carefully gone into the matter and recommends the fullest support of this great humanitarian campaign; a campaign which will mean life for starving babes and women in a God forsaken country. We hope to devote considerable space to the matter tomorrow and take occasion at this time to ask a careful reading and earnest consideration of our individual duty in this is in the lives of millions of our brother men.

YANK WAITED YEAR TO BEAT UP OFFICER

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 3.—A former army officer, who was in the "hard boiled" class in the opinion of his men, received a telegram telling him to meet a certain train. When it arrived, a discharged soldier, jumped from the train and said, "Well, you, I've been waiting a year for this chance," and proceeded to beat up the officer and caught the train as it pulled out.

FORMER EDITOR OF PROGRESS DIES
AT CURWENSVILLE

John Ray Bixler a former editor of The Progress passed away at his home in Curwensville at 3 o'clock this morning as the result of an illness extending over a period of several months, the cause of his death being high blood pressure with complications. The deceased was about 77 years of age.

John R. Bixler was well known in newspaper circles throughout the state, having devoted his entire life to newspaper work. He first came to Clearfield in October, 1873, starting and conducting for several years, the old Clearfield Citizen, forerunner of the Public Spirit. He was an expert printer and gifted writer. Following the disposal of his interests here Mr. Bixler went to Williamsport and had editorial charge of the Williamsport Sun for many years.

He returned to Clearfield in the spring of 1913 as editor of The Progress, resigning this position in 1915. He then purchased the Curwensville Herald and has since successfully conducted that publication.

He had been in failing health for some time and about two weeks ago was forced to take his bed where he remained in a semi-conscious condition up until the end.

He is survived by his widow and three daughters.

The funeral will be held from his late residence Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Curwensville cemetery.

SPEAKER BUREAU

Mr. A. M. Liveright, who so ably handled the position of Speaker's Chairman for the various war work drives, because of previous business engagements, has found it impossible to act in this capacity for the Jewish Relief Campaign. The Executive Committee have reluctantly accepted his resignation and have named A. E. Chase, Esq., who will have charge of the Speaker's Bureau, and any local chairman desiring speakers at any public meetings of any kind, will get in touch with Mr. Chase, who will attend to their wants. The committee is quite sure that the purpose and necessities of this campaign should be fully explained to everybody, and takes this opportunity to suggest that speakers be used wherever possible.

The boxing festival at the Clearfield Driving park last evening was the mecca for all red-blooded male citizens of this vicinity last evening.

The fight events were pulled off in a ring erected in the centre of the big Exposition building and when Master of Ceremonies "Tunk" Edwards crawled through the ropes to make the first official announcement more than seven hundred enthusiastic fight fans were ranged upon tiers of seats built around the ring.

The program provided for the evening by Manager McGowan consisted of three four round preliminaries between local amateurs, the main bout scheduled between Young McCoy, of Altoona, who is an aspirant for the middleweight championship of the state and Ike Griffin, the one time local hope. Ike was hopeless and refused to go on last evening. He was accused of having cold feet, but called at The Progress office this morning to state that the difficulty was not physical but financial. He claims that he was to receive twenty-five per cent of the gross proceeds of the bout for going on, the same as was to be paid his opponent, but that the management yesterday afternoon agreeing to take 50 per cent of the net profits and in case of there being no profits he would have his trouble for nothing while the other fellow pulled down the kale.

On the other hand the management states that Griffin demanded $175 and when it was offered him raised the limit again. In any event the main bout didn't materialize.

The curtain raiser was a four round bout between Jack Eadie, Jr., the "Hillsdale Slasher" and "Lanky" Langer, the Fourth Ward champion. These boys are pretty evenly matched and put on a rattling good bout.

CHICAGO PLANTS MAKE GAINS

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—A conference of the national committee of Iron and Steel workers will be held in Washington Monday evening, John Fitzgerald, chairman of the committee announced here today. Fitzgerald refused to comment on the purposes of the meeting other than to say they would take up the handling of all matters connected with the strike.

Fitzgerald arrived here today from Washington. Upon his arrival he issued a statement regarding the stand taken by Judge Elbert Gary in his testimony before the Senate Labor committee yesterday in Washington. "Judge Gary's stand is clear," Fitzgerald said. "He will not arbitrate. He has challenged the government and organized labor repeatedly. Such a condition cannot continue to exist in America," he declared.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—The ranks of the striking steel workers were depleted of foreigners today. In the face of the apparent dead lock hundreds of foreigners were reported departing for Europe while many of them sought employment in mines and on contract work.

Police in Clairton and Rankin reported additional men returning to work. Both sides were gathering evidence today for submission to the Senate investigating committee in the event the later decides to come here for the true situation.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Steel production in the Chicago district today was 50 per cent, normal officials of the companies reported. Strike leaders admitted that a few of their men were returning to work but strongly contended that the strike was far from broken.

NEW YORK GIVES NOISY AND WHOLE
HEARTED WELCOME TO KING ALBERT

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The official welcome to King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold to this city at noon, although deferred until 24 hours after their arrival from Belgium, surpassed in enthusiasm the informal greeting they received yesterday. Ten thousand people massed at the battery when the royal party arrived there. Other thousands lined lower Broadway when the party and an escort went in motors to the city hall. This was the lunch hour for the financial district workers and they preferred giving voice to their admiration of Albert, his consort and heir to undertaking the more prosaic task of eating.

CLEARFIELD ITALIAN BAND TO REORGANIZE

The Clearfield Italian band will be reorganized again following a meeting yesterday afternoon of not guilty and directed that the prosecutor pay the costs. Sheriff Gorman was prosecuted by George J. Mazenko for assault and battery which he alleged took place while the Sheriff was dispossessing him from the Merchants hotel at Coalport on a landlord's warrant.

In May last a meeting was held by those interested looking to the reorganization of this band and at that time the following officers were chosen: President, Fred Guarino; Secretary, Nick Maiale; Treasurer, Frank Cimo. Since that time these officers have been at work on plans for getting the band started. They have succeeded in securing a most competent instructor in the person of Prof. Luigi Di Michele, of Latrobe, Pa. The Professor is a graduate of the Academy of Saint Cecilia, Rome, Italy, and comes to Clearfield highly recommended as a musician and good teacher.

All the old members of the old band and as many new musicians among the Italian population as desire a chance on getting nothing than accepting the little shares under communism.

There's no little of everything in America that folk would rather take a chance on getting nothing than accepting the little shares under communism.

The Clearfield Fire Department will meet at Third House House, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Let all firemen attend.

FRANCE HAS RATIFIED

PACT BY 372 TO 53

PARIS, Oct. 3.—France, through her chamber of deputies, ratified the peace treaty, of Versailles late today by a vote of 372 to 53.

The Anglo-American-French special pact for the protection of France was unanimously approved.

Up to U. S. Senate

Now that France has ratified the peace treaty the opposition in the United States senate holds the fate of the world in its hands. England's ratification will be merely a formality. In Italy the political crisis has postponed ratification for at least a month. Japan is waiting for the Shantung settlement. This makes the American senate the veritable arbiter, for three great powers must ratify the treaty to make it effective.

WHY NOT MARK LANDING PLACE?

Now that troubled aviators are frequently forced to seek a landing hereabouts from time to time might it not be a good thing or the proper thing for the Clearfield Park Association to supply a suitable marker for the landing place at the park. This field appears to be big enough to accommodate the ordinary machine and if a proper marker or guide should be located thereon it would no doubt be of help to the birdman in trouble.

Under favorable conditions the steel mills of the United States are capable of an aggregate production of 50,000,000 gross tons a year.

THE IRON AND STEEL INDUSTRY

The making of steel was known to the ancient Egyptians and Assyrians.

The United States now produces more than one-half of all the steel made.

The first recorded discovery of iron in America was in North Carolina in 1585.

The first attempt to manufacture iron in America was made in Virginia in 1619.

The hot blast process in iron manufacture was introduced in the United States in the early 'thirties.

The manufacture of steel in Pittsburgh district has been carried on for considerably more than a century.

The direct process of making steel by immersing malleable iron in a bath of cast iron was discovered by Bessemer in 1722.

The steel works at Joliet, Ill., were the first in the United States to roll steel rails direct, without re-heating, from the ingot.

The first great entire steel bridge in the world was that built by Gen. William Sooy Smith across the Missouri river at Glasgow, Missouri.

The first notable strike in the American iron and steel industry occurred in Pittsburgh in 1850, when the workers employed in the mills in that city and its vicinity went on strike because of a reduction in wages.

The great strike in the Carnegie steel mills at Homestead in 1892, one of the bitterest labor conflicts in the history of American industry, lasted five months, involved 10,000 workers, and resulted in a wage loss of over two million dollars.

The first steel rails made in the United States were produced by Zeph S. Dwyer at Wyandotte, Mich., in 1835. Two years later the production of rails on a commercial scale was begun at a Bessemer steel plant in Troy, N. Y., and at the Cambria iron works in Johnstown, Pa.

In the early 'sixties the steel industry was revolutionized by the inventions of Henry Bessemer, whose process reduced the cost of production more than 500 per cent. Long before Bessemer's time the idea of converting cast iron into cast steel had engaged the attention of many brilliant men, but it had been dismissed as impracticable. Bessemer's idea was to force a blast of cold air through the molten metal until it was sufficiently decarbonized to become steel. Before that process was suggested the decarbonization of iron could only be effected by the tedious, difficult and unhealthful process of puddling, which consisted in turning and kneading great molten masses at the end of long rods until every part was exposed to the air.

Atlantic's Great in the Hill-Country

There's "climb" in every nerve and fibre of Atlantic Gasoline. Put it to the test of the hill-country. Drive-wheels grip the road with the certainty of spur-gear and pinion under the onward, upward urge of mighty Atlantic.

Ration your trucks with Atlantic Gasoline. Give your driver the assurance of being carried up and over, where the grade is steep and the pull long and tedious.

It is tremendously significant that a vast majority of trucks and passenger-cars in the State use this mighty motor-fuel exclusively. Profit by the experience of those who have put Atlantic to the test of the climb.

GREAT BOXING SHOW PULLED LAST NIGHT

lots of action from the world. Each boy had the claret flowing from his opponents facial handle and after mixing it up fast and furious in the fourth were both ready to quit when the bell ended the battle.

The next number proved to be a real card. It was between Prof. Rupert, instructor of the Fourth Ward Athletic club and a colored battler from East End named Legg. Like its predecessors this was also a four round bout and showed the men to be pretty evenly matched. Not hearing the gong ending the bout Legg landed his right flush on Rupert's nose when the latter had dropped his guard at the sound of the bell. Yoe should have seen that old red-headed fellow get up on his hind legs and prance after that foul blow. He was mad clean through and it took Referee Edward's Rupert's second and Officer Carlson to keep the irate boxer away from his opponent, who later apologized for his error and the incident closed.

At this time Col. Bill Fairman, Jefferson county's champion in the 83 year old class, was introduced and throwing his hat and cane into the ring he challenged any man of his age for a four round go at catchweights. The def was unanswered and after recounting briefly his first experience in a Clearfield county ring, in the DuBois region, fifty-nine years ago, Col. Fairman ended a five minute speech and again donned his "table cloth" coat.

Hughy Poole, middleweight champion of Camp Lee, took Ike Griffin's place in the main bout of the evening and went on with young McCoy for four rounds. The white lad, despite the fact that he went into the ring with no preparation gave an excellent account of himself and landed many telling blows on his dusky opponent. In fact Poole proved that he was no novice at the game and got a great reception from the crowd for his fast work.

McCoy is a good man and has every appearance of a real battler.

Leslie Roberts, the Boardman wrestler, who has entered Bill Davis' "stable" was present and appearing at the ringside accepted the challenges of both Platts and Hayatt. He will wrestle the latter if he makes 168 pounds. Platts, who is being managed by "Tank" Edwards, will meet Roberts at Clearfield on Tuesday evening of next week.

Arrangements are also being made for a boxing match between Young McCoy and Johnny Wolgast, of Lancaster, Pa. This bout to take place at the Clearfield Park on the evening of October 16th.

The evening's fun was concluded by a battle royal in which five dusky sons of Ham from Woodland, participated. The boys battered each other promiscuously about the ring to the great enjoyment of the crowd. The contest lasted twenty minutes and was won by "Yellow Dick" who proved to have the greatest staying powers.

This exhibition demonstrated that Clearfield people will patronize clean sport properly managed. Despite the fact that the bulk of the participants were Republicans the crowd was very democratic, embracing business and professional men of all grades and shades, as well as horny-handed sons of toil, editors, barbers and such.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

Miss Mary McCloskey had a severe what now escape from serious injury the other day. She is employed in the Fleming Cigar factory, and was engaged at her work, when the ceiling plastering let loose and came down with a thud and jar that made the cigar cases dance out in the front room. Fortunately for the young lady a drying rack was suspended over her head, which broke the plaster, fell somewhat, but enough of it caught her on the head to cut quite a gash. Her escape from serious injury was a most lucky one.

Linn Faust, of Pittsburgh, was summoned to Curwensville yesterday on account of the serious condition of his sister, Mrs. William Eohlen.

Peter Frigo, who purchased the David Hite property on Main street about one year ago, is having a handsome front veranda added thereto.

The waters in the river, creek and other smaller streams are now at a very low ebb, and it behooves the housewife to boil the drinking water now in order to save illness and doctor bills in the families, and as one of the local physicians put it last evening, "an ounce of prevention now, is worth ten pounds of cure a month from now." He further stated that in his opinion all drinking water should be boiled until after freezing weather sets in.

A number of lads and lasses will hold a marshmallow feast at the Post-Weat's next grounds this evening.

The Jewish Relief Fund has been started with vigor and determination at Curwensville to contribute her full share. A meeting was held the first part of the week, and it was not so well attended as it should have been, but there were enough benevolent souls present to start the campaign going. Collecting committees have been appointed, who will work constantly and energetically during the course of the campaign. The responsibility of maintaining life in these six million sufferers rests upon every man and woman in the United States; it is not willing to turn aside, and give a helpless, harmless man woman or child to die because out of his own heart he would refuse to share his loaf of bread. Give and give heartily. In Curwensville each representative of the industry will take charge of the collection paper, as will also each home foreman. A subscription blank is also in the hands of each merchant, who will gather what he can outside of workmen engaged in the industries. This year $25,000,000 is required to sustain the lives of these people, and America, always generous, is asked to supply this sum in the campaign, which will begin in this state on October 14th. A Bible lesson in fragility will not come amiss right here. Huge as the above figures may seem to many, it is less than $6.00 a year per person with which to provide food, clothing, fuel, shelter, medical attention, drugs, and the other necessities of life. Two cents a day to keep alive an old man, woman, or young boy or girl, whose fault it is that they have been born to a life of war suffering, is truly a small sum indeed to ask of a nation whose most frugal citizens must spend at least $500.00 a year for sustenance, clothing, and shelter. Watch Curwensville, she will go over the top in allotment.

NEW MILLPORT

On Sunday evening at the Methodist Church, a Memorial Service was held at New Millport, Pa., in honor of First Class Private Ivan Kenzie Sloppy, who sustained his life in the war, in the battle of Camp Meade, Ardenne Forest, Meuse, France. His body was found on the death of this brave young man, who was reported as missing in action on October 24th, later reported as having died from wounds received on October 27th, later having been reported as having been wounded and captured by the Germans in this condition and afterwards dying in their hands and buried by them. The family have since gotten in touch with a few remaining comrades of the Company, who say he bravely died at the post of Automotive Cannon, during the ruthless Hun back in their unsuccessful assault on our boys. Ivan was recruited to the service in April, went overseas in May, joined with Company M, 124th Regiment, received his training with the British

THIS COLUMN FOR BOYS AND GIRLS AND PARENTS

How to Earn Money Outside of School

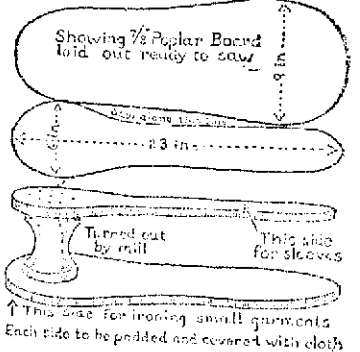

Profits from a Celler Factory

By J. H. Miller, Director Boys' and Girls' Newspaper Service As Mrs. O'Flaherty put it, "That boy young Bill Jones hasn't good for nothing now. Why don't he make some money and help his Ma not to have to take in all them washings?"

Now, Bill couldn't seem to make money, but he could make anything else. His workshop was a wonder.

One day Bill happened to hear a man in a big automobile say to a friend, "A factory is nothing but a big workshop, anyway. In any workshop you have to specialize to make money. In our factory in Grand Rapids we make chairs and nothing else—except money—and the chief reason we make money is that we make nothing else but chairs. I tell you, you have to specialize."

This gave Bill something to think about. He decided to specialize and make a real factory out of his shop. That night he talked it over with his mother. Bill wanted to start a bow-gun factory, but his mother said, "No, you must make something that people really need. Now, I've always needed a good strong glueboard. The ones you buy are so small and weak."

Together they drew up the plans. Bill would make a combination glueboard and small ironing board that would be a labor saver. On one side a lady could iron a shirtwaist or a few handkerchiefs without the trouble of getting out her big boards on the other side she could iron sleeves.

Even Mrs. O'Flaherty wanted one when she saw it. Soon Bill was a business man—a manufacturer. His output was ten boards a week, one each school day and five on Saturdays. His account book showed a weekly profit of $4.00.

Bill had a right idea. Whether or not it is glueboard, the way to make money out of a home workshop is to specialize in making some one or two things that are really needed.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

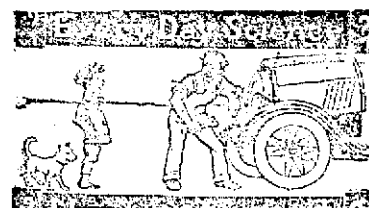

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pale—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for cod liver oil—were prepared by Dr. Edwards, after 17 years of study. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are pure vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days—you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like cod liver oil, yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c. Take one or two daily and note the pleasing results.

Why Does Mr. Electric Iron Blow Out the Fuse?

By Grant M. Hyde

Associate Professor of Journalism The University of Wisconsin

Why is it that Mr. Electric Iron so often blows out the fuse, Daddy? "Because when he uses the iron, she sometimes uses too many lights at the same time and puts too much of a load on the wires. If it weren't for the fuse she might set the house afire."

"How does she put a load on the wires?"

"Well, rummy, it's like this. The electric wires outside our house carry much more electricity than the wires inside the house can stand. The volume of current we allow to get through the wires depends on the number of lights we turn on. It is measured in amperes and watts.

"If you turn on one light, you let in perhaps one-fourth an ampere, and about twenty-five watts go over the wire in one hour. If you turn on two lights, you let in twice as much. If you were to turn on more than, say, twenty lights, so much current would come over the wires that it might set the house afire.

"Electric fuses and other devices use more current than lights do. Sometimes a short circuit lets a great volume rush through. To protect our house we have fuses that cannot stand as much current as the wires. They are made of metal that melts instantly if overloaded. And when the current that the fuses use, or a short circuit, or something else overloads the wires, instead of setting the house on fire, it blows out the fuse and thus stops the current by completely breaking the circuit."

"But we have more than twenty lights, Dad."

"Yes, that is because we have several circuits, splitting off the main wire where it enters the house. Your mother's flannel simply overloads the kitchen and dining room circuit and blows the fuse. It doesn't affect other circuits. We have three circuits; some houses have more, some less."

PE-RU-NA Worth Its Weight In Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 908 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him—

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and the same. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using half a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up chunks of phlegm and mucus, my eyes itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA." (Signed) W. W. NORTHROP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA.

DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER.

If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.

HERBERT HOOVER TELLS WHY The Jewish War Relief Campaign IS NECESSARY NOW

AMERICAN RELIEF ADMINISTRATION
EUROPEAN CHILDREN'S FUND,
HERBERT HOOVER, Chairman,

115 Broadway, New York
September 16, 1919

Nathan Straus, Esq.,
American Jewish Relief Committee,
175 Union Arcade, Pittsburg, Pa.

My Dear Mr. Straus:

I am indeed glad to see the effort being made by the American Jewish Relief Committee for sufferers from the War to raise further funds for its work in Europe. As you know, your organization has co-operated with us wonderfully in relief work at the most critical centers of Europe. I cannot speak too highly of the spirit and effectiveness of the Joint Distribution Committee in Europe, nor can I emphasize too strongly the critical necessity for its continuation.

As you are aware, my colleagues and myself are endeavoring to carry on the special feeding of under-nourished children through Central and Eastern Europe on a charitable basis over the forthcoming winter. There are between four and five millions of these children, to whom the application of the term "under-nourished" conveys no proper indication of the state in which they exist. Your committee has taken over a considerable section of this work during the last six months in Poland and other sections of Central and Eastern Europe, and without their co-operation success would have been impossible. The broad, non-sectarian spirit shown by the Joint Distribution Committee, although primarily devoted to Jewish work, and their willing co-operation, which my own administration has enjoyed, places me under an obligation to the committee.

I do wish you every possible success, for there never was a greater need.

Faithfully yours,
(Signed) HERBERT HOOVER.

DOOLEY SUES THE WORLD

From the Kansas City Star
The latest volume our old friend Mr. Dooley, discussing various matters, comes upon Mr. Higgins' proposal of several years ago. Higgins, an international police force, the philosopher of Archie Road, comes to this conclusion:

"An' there ye are, I don't know whether I'll succeed or not, I hope so. But there's was thing I am afraid iv, Hinnissey. Ye see, me boy, the world is a pretty old hunk of mud an' wickedness, an' I've been here a long time an' I've observed this sad truth. Ye don't have to lend a man money. Ye don't have to amuse him; ye don't have to take care iv him if he's sick; ye don't have to do anything fr him but wan thing."

"An' what's that?" asked Mr. Hennessy.

"If he wants to fight ye, ye've got to accommodate him," said Mr. Dooley.

The world is a pretty old hunk of mud and wickedness, and the man who fails to take this into the account isn't going to get very far as a peace-maker.

Early in the participation of the United States in the world war, the American Red Cross perceived the value of mobilizing the school children of the country and the Junior Red Cross was organized. Before the war ended nine million children were enrolled and helped in the war fund and membership campaigns, in chapter production of relief supplies and manufacturing furniture for the refugees whose homes and household goods were destroyed.

Children everywhere in the United States responded to the call to service sounded by President Wilson as head of the American Red Cross. This photograph is that of an enthusiastic young Japanese member of the Junior Red Cross of Spokane, Wash., starting out on the ambitious undertaking of collecting "a pile of pennies" for war relief. A campaign for peace program is now being worked out for the Junior Red Cross, which is being held intact.

There were tears and fears following the troops as they sailed away to France, but the country is one gigantic jar of joy as it welcomes their return.

Russia seems to have a shortage of locomotives, but it must have thousands of samovars that are not working. Could not the latter be made into flywheels as a method of solving the Russian transportation problem?

Former King Ludwig of Bavaria says, "In my old age I have no place to lay my head." If he had been careful not to lay his hoof on other people's necks, he wouldn't have been bumped.

Flour having gone up only 103 per cent in the last six years there is still a chance for the inventor of sawdust bread to gain fame and fortune.

Habit is hard to curb. The old time news announcement, "Europe is on the verge of war," is still more or less in use in trans-Atlantic comment.

As we watch the task of getting the troops home we begin to understand what must have been doing a year ago when they were being rushed to Europe.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—At 2:15 p. m. Dr. Grayson issued the following statement: "The President's condition is unchanged."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—President Wilson's condition this morning showed no improvement, it was learned officially at the White House. He slept a little during the night, it was said, but in spite of this his condition remained a cause for anxiety to his physicians and his family. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. SUCCESS OF DRIVE ASSURED

Chairman Kerr and eight members of the executive committee for Jewish War Relief motored Wednesday to Osceola, Houtzdale, Mahaffey, Coalport, Irvonia, Berwinstale, LaJosa and Mahaffey where they met the different local committees and outlined the plan of campaign for Jewish Relief which starts October 6th and ends October 13th. At every place they met a hearty reception, the local committees entering into the spirit and humanity of the proposed relief to the suffering Jewish people in war-torn Poland and Russia, promising their support and co-operation.

The evening previous Curwensville was visited and J. Kay Wrigley named as local chairman. Yesterday the party visited Boardman, Carnwath, Kellytown, McCartney and Ansonville on a similar mission.

This afternoon the committee will visit the down river country, swinging around the circle by way of Morrisdale.

Space today does not permit of a full explanation of the reasons for this campaign at this time. The Progress has carefully gone into the matter and recommends the fullest support of this great humanitarian campaign; a campaign which will mean life for starving babes and women in a God forsaken country. We hope to devote considerable space to the matter tomorrow and take occasion at this time to ask a careful reading and earnest consideration of our individual duty in this crisis in the lives of millions of our brother men.

John R. Bixler was well known in newspaper circles throughout the state, having devoted his entire life to newspaper work. He first came to Clearfield in October, 1873, starting and conducting for several years, the old Clearfield Citizen, forerunner of the Public Spirit. He was an expert printer and gifted writer. Following the disposal of his interests here Mr. Bixler went to Williamsport and had editorial charge of the Williamsport Sun for many years.

The Executive Committee have reluctantly accepted his resignation and have named A. E. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—A conference of the national committee of Iron and Steel workers will be held in Washington Monday evening, John Fitzgerald, chairman of the committee announced here today. Fitzgerald refused to comment on the purposes of the meeting other than to say they would take up the handling of all matters connected with the strike.

Fitzgerald arrived here today from Washington. Upon his arrival he issued a statement regarding the stand taken by Judge Elbert Gary in his testimony before the Senate Labor committee yesterday in Washington. "Judge Gary's stand is clear," Fitzgerald said. "He will not arbitrate. He has challenged the government and organized labor repeatedly. Such a condition cannot continue to exist in America," he declared.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—The ranks of the striking steel workers were depleted of foreigners today. In the face of the apparent dead lock hundreds of foreigners were reported departing for Europe while many of them sought employment in mines and on contract work.

Police in Clairton and Rankin reported additional men returning to work. Both sides were gathering evidence today for submission to the Senate investigating committee in the event the later decides to come here for the true situation.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Steel production in the Chicago district today was 50 per cent. normal officials of the companies reported. Strike leaders admitted that a few of their men were returning to work but strongly contended that the strike was far from broken.

This was the lunch hour for the financial district workers and they preferred giving voice to their admiration of Albert, his consort and heir to undertaking the more prosaic task of eating.

CLEARFIELD ITALIAN BAND TO

The Clearfield Italian band will be reorganized again following a meeting yesterday afternoon of not guilty and directed that the prosecutor pay the costs. Sheriff Gorman was prosecuted by George J. Mazenko for assault and battery which he alleged took place while the Sheriff was dispossessing him from the Merchants hotel at Coalport on a landlord's warrant.

In May last a meeting was held by those interested looking to the reorganization of this band and at that time the following officers were chosen: President, Fred Guarino; Secretary, Nick Maiale; Treasurer, Frank Cimo. Since that time these officers have been at work on plans for getting the band started. They have succeeded in securing a most competent instructor in the person of Prof. Luigi Di Michele, of Latrobe, Pa. The Professor is a graduate of the Academy of Saint Cecilia, Rome, Italy, and comes to Clearfield highly recommended as a musician and good teacher.

FRANCE HAS RATIFIED

PACT BY 372 TO 53

PARIS, Oct. 3.—France, through her chamber of deputies, ratified the peace treaty, of Versailles late today by a vote of 372 to 53.

The Anglo-American-French special pact for the protection of France was unanimously approved.

Up to U. S. Senate

Now that France has ratified the peace treaty the opposition in the United States senate holds the fate of the world in its hands. England's ratification will be merely a formality. In Italy the political crisis has postponed ratification for at least a month. Japan is waiting for the Shantung settlement. This makes the American senate the veritable arbiter, for three great powers must ratify the treaty to make it effective.

WHY NOT MARK LANDING PLACE?

Now that troubled aviators are frequently forced to seek a landing hereabouts from time to time might it not be a good thing or the proper thing for the Clearfield Park Association to supply a suitable marker for the landing place at the park. This field appears to be big enough to accommodate the ordinary machine and if a proper marker or guide should be located thereon it would no doubt be of help to the birdman in trouble.

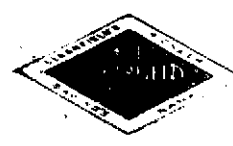

Under favorable conditions the steel mills of the United States are capable of an aggregate production of 50,000,000 gross tons a year.

METHODIST HOME FOR AGED BOUGHT

The former home of the late S. S. Ball, superintendent of the Pennsy's Tyrone division, located on Washington avenue, Tyrone, was purchased last Wednesday for a Methodist home for aged people for the Central Pennsylvania. The deal was closed at a meeting of the conference board of directors. The consideration is $16,000, possession to be given within thirty days.

The building is well adapted to the purpose. It is a three story brick building with ample grounds and afford excellent opportunity for building extensions. Its present capacity is about fifty. A superintendent and matron will be selected and the home will be open within a short time.

The directors convened at 10:30 yesterday morning and were in session until late in the afternoon at the First Methodist church in Tyrone. In addition to purchasing the home the board adopted a constitution and by-laws.

lots of action from the world. Each boy had the claret flowing from his opponents facial handle and after mixing it up fast and furious in the fourth were both ready to quit when the bell ended the battle.

The next number proved to be a real card. It was between Prof. Rupert, instructor of the Fourth Ward Athletic club and a colored battler from East End named Legg. Like its predecessors this was also a four round bout and showed the men to be pretty evenly matched. Not hearing the gong ending the bout Legg landed his right flush on Rupert's nose when the latter had dropped his guard at the sound of the bell. Yoe should have seen that old red-headed fellow get up on his hind legs and prance after that foul blow. He was mad clean through and it took Referee Edward's Rupert's second and Officer Carlson to keep the irate boxer away from his opponent, who later apologized for his error and the incident closed.

At this time Col. Bill Fairman, Jefferson county's champion in the 83 year old class, was introduced and throwing his hat and cane into the ring the Colonel clambered in and challenged any man of his age for a four round go at catchweights. The def was unanswered and after recounting briefly his first experience in a Clearfield county ring, in the DuBois region, fifty-nine years ago, Col. Fairman ended a five minute speech and again donned his "table cloth" coat.

Hughy Poole, middleweight champion of Camp Lee, took Ike Griffin's place in the main bout of the evening and went on with young McCoy for four rounds. The white lad, despite the fact that he went into the ring with no preparation gave an excellent account of himself and landed many telling blows on his dusky opponent. In fact Poole proved that he was no novice at the game and got a great reception from the crowd for his fast work.

McCoy is a good man and has every appearance of a real battler.

Leslie Roberts, the Boardman wrestler, who has entered Bill Davis' "stable" was present and appearing at the ringside accepted the challenges of both Platts and Hayatt. He will wrestle the latter if he makes 168 pounds. Platts, who is being managed by "Tank" Edwards, will meet Roberts at Clearfield on Tuesday evening of next week.

Arrangements are also being made for a boxing match between Young McCoy and Johnny Wolgast, of Lancaster, Pa. This bout to take place at the Clearfield Park on the evening of October 16th.

The evening's fun was concluded by a battle royal in which five dusky sons of Ham from Woodland, participated. The boys battered each other promiscuously about the ring to the great enjoyment of the crowd. The contest lasted twenty minutes and was won by "Yellow Dick" who proved to have the greatest staying powers.

This exhibition demonstrated that Clearfield people will patronize clean sport properly managed. Despite the fact that the bulk of the participants were Republicans the crowd was very democratic, embracing business and professional men of all grades and shades, as well as horny-handed sons of toil, editors, barbers and such.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Miss Mary McCloskey had a severe what now escape from serious injury the other day. She is employed in the Fleming Cigar factory, and was engaged at her work, when the ceiling plastering let loose and came down with a thud and jar that made the cigar cases dance out in the front room. Fortunately for the young lady a drying rack was suspended over her head, which broke the plaster, fell somewhat, but enough of it caught her on the head to cut quite a gash. Her escape from serious injury was a most lucky one.

Linn Faust, of Pittsburgh, was summoned to Curwensville yesterday on account of the serious condition of his sister, Mrs. William Eohlen.

Peter Frigo, who purchased the David Hile property on Main street about one year ago, is having a handsome front veranda added thereto.

The waters in the river, creek and other smaller streams are now at a very low ebb, and it behooves the housewife to boil the drinking water now in order to save illness and doctor bills in the families, and as one of the local physicians put it last evening, "an ounce of prevention now is worth ten pounds of cure a month from now." He further stated that in his opinion all drinking water should be boiled until after freezing weather sets in.

A number of lads and lasses will hold a marshmallow feast at the Peas Week's Next grounds this evening.

The Jewish Relief Fund has been started with vigor and determination at Curwensville to contribute her full share. A meeting was held the first part of the week, and it was not so well attended as it should have been, but there were enough benevolent souls present to start the campaign going. Collecting committees have been appointed, who will work constantly and energetically during the course of the campaign. The responsibility of maintaining life in these six million sufferers rests upon every man and woman in the United States; it is not willing to turn aside, and give a helpless, harmless man woman or child to die because out of his own fault he would refuse to share his loaf of bread. Give and give heartily. In Curwensville each representative of the industry will take charge of the collection paper, as will also each home foreman. A subscription blank is also in the hands of each merchant, who will gather what he can outside of workmen engaged in the industries. This year $25,000,000 is required to sustain the lives of these people, and America, always generous, is asked to supply this sum in the campaign, which will begin in this state on October 14th. A Bible lesson in fragility will not come amiss right here. Huge as the above figures may seem to many, it is less than $6.00 a year per person with which to provide food, clothing, fuel, shelter, medical attention, drugs, and the other necessities of life. Two cents a day to keep alive an old man, woman, or young boy or girl, whose fault it is that they have been born to a life of war suffering, is truly a small sum indeed to ask of a nation whose most frugal citizens must spend at least $500.00 a year for sustenance, clothing, and shelter. Watch Curwensville, she will go over the top in allotment.

NEW MILLPORT

On Sunday evening at the Methodist Church, a Memorial Service was held at New Millport, Pa., in honor of First Class Private Ivan Kenzie Sloppy, who sustained his life in the war, was in the battle of Cantigny, France. His body was found after the death of this brave young man, who was reported as missing in action on October 25th, later reported as having died from wounds received on October 27th, later having been reported as having been wounded and captured by the Germans in this condition and afterwards dying in their hands and buried by them. The family have since gotten in touch with a few remaining comrades of the Company, who say he bravely died at the post of Automotive Cannon, during the ruthless Hun back in their unsuccessful assault on our boys. Ivan was recruited to the service in April, went overseas in May, joined with Company M, 124th Regiment, received his training with the British

How to Earn Money

Outside of School

Profits from a Celler Factory
By J. H. Miller, Director Boys' and Girls' Newspaper Service
As Mrs. O'Flaherty put it, "That boy young Bill Jones isn't good for nothing now. Why don't he make some money and help his Ma not to have to take in all them washings?"

Now, Bill couldn't seem to make money, but he could make anything else. His workshop was a wonder. One day Bill happened to hear a man in a big automobile say to a friend, "A factory is nothing but a big workshop, anyway. In any workshop you have to specialize to make money. In our factory in Grand Rapids we make chairs and nothing else—except money—and the chief reason we make money is that we make nothing else but chairs. I tell you, you have to specialize."

This gave Bill something to think about. He decided to specialize and make a real factory out of his shop. That night he talked it over with his mother. Bill wanted to start a bow-gun factory, but his mother said, "No, you must make something that people really need. Now, I've always needed a good strong cleaverboard. The ones you buy are so small and weak."

Together they drew up the plans. Bill would make a combination cleaverboard and small ironing board that would be a labor saver. On one side a lady could iron a shirtwaist or a few handkerchiefs without the trouble of getting out her big boards on the other side she could iron sleeves.

Even Mrs. O'Flaherty wanted one when she saw it. Soon Bill was a business man—a manufacturer. His output was ten boards a week, one each school day and five on Saturdays. His account book showed a weekly profit of $4.00. Bill had a great idea. Whether or not it is cleaverboards, the way to make money out of a home workshop is to specialize in making some one or two things that are really needed.

If your skin is yellow—complexion pale—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for cod liver oil—were prepared by Dr. Edwards, after 17 years of study. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely vegetable compounds mixed with oil of liver. You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days—you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like cod liver oil, yet have no dangerous after effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 50c. Take one or two daily and note the pleasing results.

Why Does Mr. Electric Iron Blow Out the Fuse?

By Grant M. Hyde
Associate Professor of Journalism
The University of Wisconsin
Why is it that Mr. Electric Iron so often blows out the fuse, Daddy?

"Because when he uses the iron, she sometimes uses too many lights at the same time and puts too much of a load on the wires. If it weren't for the fuse she might set the house afire."

"How does she put a load on the wires?"

"Well, rummy, it's like this. The electric wires outside our house carry much more electricity than the wires inside the house can stand. The volume of current we allow to get through the wires depends on the number of lights we turn on. It is measured in amperes and watts."

"If you turn on one light, you let in perhaps one-fourth an ampere, and about twenty-five watts go over the wire in one hour. If you turn on two lights, you let in twice as much. If you were to turn on more than, say twenty lights, so much current would come over the wires that it might set the house afire."

"Electric fuses and other devices use more current than lights do. Sometimes a short circuit lets a great volume rush through. To protect our house we have fuses that cannot stand as much current as the wires. They are made of metal that melts instantly if overloaded. And when the current that the fuses use, or a short circuit, or something else overloads the wires, instead of setting the house on fire, it blows out the fuse and thus stops the current by completely breaking the circuit."

"But we have more than twenty lights, Dad."

"Yes, that is because we have several circuits, splitting off the main wire where it enters the house. Your mother's flatiron simply overloads the kitchen and dining room circuit and blows the fuse. It doesn't affect other circuits. We have three circuits; some houses have more, some less."

A Voice From Sioux City, Iowa, says

PE-RU-NA Worth Its Weight In Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 908 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him—

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and the same. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using half a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up chunks of phlegm and mucus, my eyes itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA." (Signed) W. W. NORTHROP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA.

DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER.

If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.
